OUT OF MORMON'S CLUTCHES.

THOSE LITTLE GIRLS ARE SAFE FROM THE APOSTLES OF POLYGAMY.

Collector Magone Refuses to Let the Elders Take them to Utah, and Nineteen of the "Converts" Are to Return to Their Native Land-Elders Phill'ps and Walsh Bent an Undignified Retreat.

Those beautiful specimens of Mormondom, Eiders Phillips and Walsh, who arrived from Europe on the steamship Wisconsin with 150 converts, including a dozen innocent children, who had no other guards with them, received a set-back at the hands of Collector Magone through the energy and determination of the Castle Garden Landing Bureau, and were robbed of their prey. Nineteen of the "converts" who were deemed to be incapable of understanding what they were doing were ordered back to their native lands, and last night Chief Inspector Walker, of the Custom-House corps at Castle Garden, took them up North river to the Wisconsin. They will start on their return voyage across the ocean on Tuesday

William and Lillian Armstrong, the Lanca shire lad and lassie, who thought they were bound for San Francisco, having purchased tickets to the Golden Gate, were wrested from "Brother Phillips, who was really takthem to Utah, and sent on their way to California by way of the Pennsylvania road last road last night. They go to relatives in California.

The gross apostles of polygamy were com-pelled to return to them their money and tickets, and they were the happiest and blithest passengers on the Pennsylvania road last night. They go to relatives in California.

Phillips and Walsh were glad to get away unpunished by the law, and hastily left by steamer for Norfolk, Va., taking the remainder of their deluded followers with them. They will go to Utah by way of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway from Norfolk. When told that they must return to England, Sarah Ashley, the frail, little serving maid who had exchanged hard service in England for perhaps a worse fate in Utah, cried bitterly, and she excited the pity even of the officials. She threw her arms about the fat, red neck of Elder Walsh and wept and kissed him hysterically.

But Nellie Tomlinson was more brave. She submitted to being kissed by the "Elder," and then set about comforting her companion, and when they had arrived on the Wisconsin both were talking animatedly and with pleasant anticipations of again seeing their brothers and sisters in England.

At this time it leaked out that the blue-eyed, pretty Sarah was of a family of "no goods." Two of her brothers are now in the workhouse, and the others are bad. She is twelve years old—the youngest of a family of eight children.

George Coresford, eleven years old, could not remember the names of his two sisters whom he said lived in Brigham, Utah. He objected to going back strongly, and a nine-year-old girl said, sobbingly, that she was a objected to going back strongly, and a nine-year-old girl said, sobbingly, that she was a "child of God," and would say nothing child of God," and would say nothing else.

Elizabeth Shillicole and George, aged sixteen and fourteen respectively, said their mother was somewhere in Idaho and their father in England had given them to Elder Phillips. They were bold and too evidently liars, and they were violent in their remonstrances against being returned to England.

Christine Pattison, an ancient hag of the Fronchard order, had three children with her, aged one four and thirteen respectively. The two former were the illigitimate offspiring of her two daughters in Glasgow, and Ans two former were the lingitimate off-spring of her two daughters in Glasgow, and the other, Maria Driskard, said she was a Dutch girl, had left her parents and was going to be a Mormon. The old woman ob-jected in not the most polite English to going back to Scotland, and abused Supt. Simpson in round terms.

in round terms.

Nicholas Egli, the old Swiss, and his family of imbeciles went weeping into the tug, which returned them to the Wisconsin, and the old man declared he would come back to

This is the first successful attempt to check this wicked mode of propagating the Mor-mon faith in America, and thousands of converts to that faith from the very lowest classes of European society have been landed on our sho's. Encouraged by this success Supt. Simpson will pursue the policy thus inaugurated, and possibly some of the "Elders" will get themselves into trouble by their negations subsume of the "Elders"

Farious scheme.

Walsh and Phillips were much discomfitted by this setback, and wasted no time about Castle Garden after they had heard the decision. The little girls of whom they were robbed were children whose care nobody wanted in their native land, and they were thought to be properties by the polygamists.

HE DOUBTED THE POLICE.

Nevertheless. Inspector Byrnes's Man Found Mr. Nelson's Stelen Goods.

Oscar Bowers, twenty-five years, describing himself as a pattern maker, was taken to Police Headquarters this morning on a charge of having stolen a quantity of jewelry and valuable papers from H. Nelson, of Grand and Crosby streets on Tuesday.

Mr. Nelson advertised his loss in the papers but did not report his loss to the police, He roughly repelled Inspector Byrnes's men. saying that he had been robbed before and the police were not clever enough to find the thieves.

Nevertheless Detective Tourtois was put on the case and eleverly followed up a slight eiue.

He arrested Bowers on Grand street and the latter had a bundle which proved to contain some of the solen goods. At the Tombs Police Court the prisoner was held for trial.

THEY BROKE M'DONOUGH'S JAW.

The Three Men Who Disturbed an East-Side Neighborhood on Sanday Night.

James McDonough, of 237 Eldridge street, was standing at Eldridge and Stanton streets Sunday night, when three inebriated men eame along and disturbed the neighborhood, McDonough asked them to keep quiet, and they knocked him down and broke his jaw in

In Essex Market Police Court John Ken-neally, of 620 Sixth street; David Kelly, of 506 East Sixtieth street, and Thomas Sher-wood, of 120 Forsyth street, who were identi-fied by the injured man as his assailants and who admitted that they were the men, were held without ball to await the result of the man's injuries, McDonough being in danger of lockiew.

WAS THE SIGNAL WRONG?

One Story of the "L" Road Collison Says It Was. Investigations this morning throw additional light upon the "L" accident which occurred last evening. A Ninth avenue train, drawn by Engine No. 45, in charge of Engineer Mathias, had drawn out from the Fifty-ninth street station light, had run ahead past the Boulevard and was being backed onto the middle track at the switch.

One of the four cars had passed the switch and the second was on it, when a Fifty-fifth street train, north bound, drawn by engine 56, Ben Smedley engineer, crashed into

56. Ben Smedley engineer, crashed into the car, derailing it so that it rested, one end on the centre track and the other on a cross girder between the up and down tracks, both its heavy trucks crashing down into the street below upon the tracks of the Ninth avenue surface road.

The car which had passed the switch was also knocked off the track and against a flagman's but, which was hurled to the west track, where it was struck by a south-bound train and carried crashing and splintered for a full block.

train and carried crashing and splintered for a full block.

The engine of the north-bound train re-mained on the track, but the first car, which was filled with passengers, toppled to the right and would have fallen to the street below had it not been for the guard rail and the post of the automatic signal, which is sup-posed to work with the opening and closing of the switch. f the switch.

of the switch.

Women screamed with terror and men scrambled to be the first to escape from this perilous position. The guard-rail was strong, however, and the overhanging car did not fall.

One story is to the effect that Engineer Smedley, of the through train, was running on a calculation that the Fifty-ninth street train would be shunted and the track clear by the time he reached the switch, but that his calculations were upset by the blowing out of the cylinder head of engine 46, which was backing the empty train.

were upset by the blowing out of the cylinder head of engine 46, which was backing the empty train.

Smedley, it is said, saw his mistake on reaching Sixty-third street, and attempted to stop his train, and was running only at quarter speed at the moment of the collision.

Those who relate this story say that the danger signal was all right, while others assert that a white light was displayed, indicating that the track was clear.

The signal is displayed on a part on the right of the track. It is a green target and stands in a perpendicular position, when the switch is closed, and shows a white light at night. When the switch is open the target is lowered to a horizontal position and green glass disks are interposed between the light and approaching trains on either side.

between the light and approaching trains on either side.

The story that a white light was displayed when the switch was open last night, indicating to Engineer Smedley that the track was clear, is extremely probable from the condition of the signal this morning when an Evening Woble reporter visited the scene.

The signal appeared to be lashed in a perpendicular position by a piece of old rope, and if that was its condition last evening, the engineer of the through train might possibly be excused for maintaining his headway, though what possible excuse there can be for a company to whose care so many precious lives are intrusted daily, and which is so negligent as to maintain a signal like that, it is impossible to determine.

With this signal in the condition described there seemed to be no reason why the collidor of lect wently with the restand

there seemed to be no reason why the col-lision of last evening might not be repeated to-day.

Great delay to traffic on the Sixth and Ninth avenue lines was caused by the wreck, which was cleared away sufficiently by 8 o'clock, however, that it was possible to pass it by shunting at Fifty-ninth and Eighty-first streats.

SCHILLING SAVES HIS NECK.

The Jury Find Him Guilty of Manslaughter In the First Degree.

The jury in the trial of Frederick Schilling, the First avenue butcher, charged with murdering his wife in March last by thrusting an eighteen-inch meat knife into her abdomen, went out at 6 o'clock last evening and brought in a verdict of manslaughter in the first degree at 11.30 o'clock this morning.

They recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the Court.

When Schilling stood up and in obedience to the command of Clerk Davenport, "looked upon the jury," he was pale and frightened. His little eyes looked as if trying to pierce the jurors. When the verdict was announced he became deathly white, anp followed the officer back to the prisoners' pen mechanically.

followed the officer back to the prisoners' pen mechanically.

On Tuesday Ambrose H. Purdy will move for arrest of judgment and a new trial.

The first ballot last night stood 9 for manslaughter and 3 for acquittal. Twenty ballots stood 8 and 4, and finally the recommendation to mercy won over the four to the majority. Judge Gildersleeve said to the majority. Judge Gildersleeve said to the jury that their verdict was an eminently proper one.

JERSEY CITY NEWS.

A Chambermaid Probably Fatally Hurt at the Bennett Residence.

At the home of aged Broker Daniel H. Bennett, 1301/2 Forrest street, Jersey City, where the old gentleman is recovering from the effects of the murderous blow mysteriously dealt him a few weeks ago, Jeannette Mc-Naugh, the young chambermaid, has met with serious injury.

The girl was seated yesterday on the window stil in young Augustus Bennett's room, dow sill in young Augustus Bennett's room, in the rear of the third story, cleaning the panes, when she lost her balance and fell backward. She struck the grape arbor beneath the window which was found open on the morning of the elder Bennett's assault. Members of the family extricated her with difficulty and call-d Dr. Wilkinson, who found the girl with one leg broken, the other twisted and serious internal injuries. She was taken to her mother's home on Bergen avenue, where it is feared she will die from the effects of her terrible fall.

Jerney City Jottings. Fire broke out in Peter Henderson's green-bouses on Arilington avenue this morning. The damage was not heavy.

An unknown man was found this morning lying between the tracks on the Pennsylvania liatiroad with both legs broken in several places. He will

GIANTS FINISH AT HOME.

THEY ARRIVED THIS MORNING AND WILL ROAM NO MORE.

The True Reason Why the League Pennant Will Fly at New York's Grounds-Good Management, the Best Players and Playing for Business Brought This Result-tilve Welcome to the Winners.

The Giants' last League journey of the sea son came to an end this morning. At 6, 30 o'clock a few early rising Jerseyites saw the season's champions sleepily step out from the sleeping-car which had borne them from Washington to the Pennsylvania Railroad station in Jersey City.

The trip, viewed as a whole, was a success ful and, barring the Chicago disturbances kicked up by Anson and Powers, a brilliant one. The boys come home bearing a record of nine victories, seven defeats and one tie.

At Indianapolis they won two and lost one, at Pittsburg they won two and lost two, at Detroit each club won a game and the third resulted in a tie.

Chicago won three games to the Giants' one, but two of the three victories were any-thing but creditable to Manager and Capt. Afison. The Washington series formed the wind-up, and there the Giants earned three wind-up, and there the Giants earned three straight games.

The fielding of the pennant-winners has been most excellent and their batting, though light, has been timely and will average better than that of their opponents.

For five years every Gothamite has been howing for a team of ball-tossers who could earn for themselves the name of champions. Now that the Giants' worst enemy, Adrian C. Anson, has at last acknewledged hinself and his team beaten, and pointed to James Mutrie as the successful manager of the season, every ball lover in town will whoop it up for Jim and his Giants and for the Giants and their Jim.

There have been opinions without number advanced as to the cause of the Giant's success. The fact of the matter is that Manacess. advanced as to the cause of the Giant's success. The fact of the matter is that Manager Mutrie hustled about this country from the close of last season to the beginning of this and secured enough new blood to entuse and strengthen the old club, and at the same time signed a reserve force whose strength is greater than that of any club in the country—not excepting Chicago. Then all through the season, so far as possible, Mutrie has sent to the field each day what he considered to be his strongest nine. He has played the same nine against the weaker clubs that he has aganst the stronger ones.

Ewing and Keefe, or Welch, have played in a large majority of the games, and neither they nor the management "saved" themselves one particle, knowing that in case of overwork or accident, players only less able than themselves would be called upon to do the work.

the work.

Since the beginning of the season but one player has been released and but one exchanged. Cleveland's exchange for Whitney marked the turning point in the Giants' fortunes, and was the beginning of the end, Weidman's absence has not affected the strength of the team.

In conversation the other day Manager Mutrie said: ''All through the early part of the season, when we were losing game after game and playing in the worst kind of luck, I constantly telegraphed Mr. Day the following: 'Beaten again, but we've got the best nine.'

"I haven't made a boast but that this year, and time has proved that one to be truth. One thing is pretty sure; I shan't have to travel all over the country, this fall, looking for players, for if I can I shall sign every man who is a member of the club to-

And the man who has managed a champion club in the Association and now has his fingers on a League pennant, gazed con-tentedly across the car to where Ewing was sitting, and was soon engaged in earnest conversation with his captain.

Now the Giants have returned home for the rest of the season. There remain but twelve games, excepting those postponed, before the League season of 1888 will come to a close. Of those games the Giants should win at least half, though so far as the championship is concerned it doesn't matter much how many games they lose, so long as they win

many games they lose, so long as they win two more.

Von der Ahe and Latham are already uttering boastful predictions of coming victory for them in the world's championship series with the Giants. Day and Mutrie say nothing, but it is whispered that the former has the schedule arranged to his satisfaction.

Whether or pot any games will be played with Brooklyn this fall is an open question.
If not the blame will hardly rest with New If not the blame will hardly rest with New York.

York.

To-day the Giants play against the Senators on the Polo Grounds. A big crowd is sure to be there to give the boys a right royal wel-

MR. O'DONOHUE SAT UPON.

Mayor Hewitt Refuses to Rescue His Banner from the Public Works Vandals.

Joseph J. O'Donohue went to the Mayor's office with a complaint that the Public Works Department threatened to pull down a banner of the Cleveland and Thurman Downtown Business Men's Club on Broadway.

Mayor Hewitt said he would have every banner pulled down that was complained of and showed Mr. O'Donohue a complaint against the one in question.

As Mr O'Donohue rose to go he said: "Mr

Mayor, did you say that you would run against me for Mayor?"
"I did not," answered the Mayor. The newspapers say "began Mr. O'Donohue, but Mayor Hewitt interrupted "I don't care what the newspapers

MR. BLAINE'S VISIT.

The Maine Man Will Be Here To-Morrow? but There Will Be No Procession.

James G. Blaine will arrive in the city to norrow morning. He has engaged rooms at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Mr. Blaine will not be received this time by a procession. He will address a mass-meeting Saturday evening at the Polo Grounds, Amateur Challenges Wanted. The Lord & Taylor nine of Grand street would like to hear from some uniformed club. Game to be played sunday, Sept. 30. Some dry goods nine preferred. Address P. McMahon, care of Lord & Taylor, Grand street.

Asleep on the Railroad Track.

An unknown man was found this morning lying between the tracks on the Pennsylvania Haliroad with both legs broken in several places. He will die.

A number of property-holders appeared before the Board of Finance this morning asking for an appropriation of $20,000 for the repair of the Jackson avenue sewer.

Francts Lack, a fourteen-year-old boy who lives at 168 Newark avenue, was struck by a drill engine at 168 Newark avenue, was struck by a drill engine at 168 Newark avenue, was struck by a drill engine at 168 Newark avenue, as a feet orushed to a leily.

A little child, tired of play, had pillowed his bead on a rail and fallen asleep. The train was almost you him when a passing stranger rushed for ward and saved him from a horitile death for ward and saved him from a horitile death of the saved him from a horitile death of

MISS RAVEN'S CASE ADJOURNED.

The Pretty Young Cashler Will Next Appear in Yorkville Court.

Miss Minnie Raven, the pretty young cashier accused of financial irregularities by her former employers, Stern & Schloss, bustle manufacturers at 32 Howard street, was brought up for examination at the Tombs to sanied by her mother and several lady members of the Charles Street Church, of which she is a member.

With them came Police Surgeen McLeod, who is an old friend of the girl's family, and his son, Lincoln W, McLeod, who is the fair his son, Lincoln W. McLeod, who is the land defendant's attorney.

Lawyer McLeod asked for a private exami-nation, which was accorded.

The complaint charged that Miss Raven used the firm's money for her own purposes, and covered the action by false entries in and covered the action by false entries in her books.

In her defense, Miss Raven said that she was not responsible for the entries in the books, as another clerk had access to them. She also denied the specific allegations in the complaint.

After hearing several witnesses for the presecution, the defense asked for an adjournment to procure witnesses. The case was accordingly adjourned until Oct. 8, when it will come up at the Yorkville Court.

Miss Raven was released on $1,000 bail,

ON THE DIAMOND.

Standing of the League, Association and Central League This Morning.

		- Audia	of U.Ship
				Post.	To	Per-
	n. Lost.	Played	. Tied.	poned.	play.	centage.
New York	6 43	119	- 5	2	21	. 635
Chicago	11 63	124	1	- 5	16	.578
Detroit (4 56	120	1	7	20	. 533
Reston. Philadelphia 6	3 57	123	ŧ		22	*D20
Pittsburg	1 60	117	- à	10	24	.021
	0.1	120	8	2	50	407
Indianapolis 4 Washington 4	1 10	151		- 6	14	366
At manning com .	10	200	Substance .			1,000
	10.0	ASSOCI	ATION	4
St. Louis 8	3 87	120	1		20	.692
Brooklyn 7	6 48	124	Ų.	0	16	.613
Athletic 7	2 47	119	1	- 5	21	.608
Cincinnati (8 01	110	8	- 1	31	1673
Baltimore 5	4 (1)	1.3	ō.	1	17	2.13
Cleveland 4	7 50	110	9	2	10	945
Kansas City.	0 20	110	- 8	- 2	100	104
Lancas City.	W 10	110	~			1009
	CE	NTHAL	LEAG	CH.
		Per				Per
	on Los	cent.	THE STATE OF	acres of	Won. L	ast, cent.
Nowark	0 25	-775	Allen	town	51	420
Jerney City !	1 . 25	.764	Mante.	n	35 5	.870
	66 48	.587	Kimir		25	1 .322
Scranton	99 91	.009	HARL	ton	24	19 .217

Games Scheduled for To-Day.

LEAGUE. New York vs. Washington, at Polo Grounds-Paliadelphia at Boston, two games—clear.
Indianapolis at Pittaburg—clear.
ASSOCIATION.

Brooklyn at Kanas City—cloudy, Athletics at St. Louis—clear. Baltimore at Louisville—clear. Cleveland at Cincinnati—clear. Jersey City at Easton. Allentown at Newark. Hazieton at Scranton. Eimira at Wilkesbarre.

AROUND THE BASES.

The Bridegrooms are in second place. Too bad Von der Abe sold three of his stars and wins, neon sold two and loses. Mutrie won nine hate on the trip and lost seven. He bet one on each game.

Pitcher Flaningan, of the Wheeling team, yes-erday signed with the Detroits. Rumor is rife but facts are scarce concerning some sort of a welcome home to be tendered the Von der Abe is again in hot water. This time with the Athletic Club, who have brought suit against him for $1,000.

John Ward was kept very busy while on the trip denying reports of his having been secured by clubs other than New York.

On the 29th of this month (Saturday) James Mutrie will have managed the New York team just ave years. On that day something will happen on the Polo Grounds. The Giants are with us once more—a day earlier than was expected—and one feature of the welcome which will be extended to them during the remaining days of this week will be the presentation of the testimonial bats. They are nearly ready and are beauties in their way. The presentation will probably be made on Friday.

The Quotations.

ı	Cleve., Col., Cin. & Inc.	D.W	0.0	10
	Cleve., Col., Cin. & Ind	62	08	62
3	Chesapeake & Ohio	1774	17	1936
8.	Chesapeake & Onto 1st pfd Chesapeake & Onto 2d pfd	18		17
	Chicago, Buri, & Quincy	110	1143	114
и		17012	11.12	11234
2,	Chic., Mil. & St. Paul. Chic., Mil. & St. Paul pid. Chic., Rock Island & Pacific	05%	6734	65%
	Chie. Mil. & St. Paul ptd.	108	104	108
7	Chie. Rock Island & Pacific.	10036	110	100%
		93	94	M855
	Cin., Ind., St. L. & Cinc	90	91	90
701	Col. & Hocking Vailey	26	2034	26
٤.	Consolidated Gas	8146	88	81%
•	Consolidated Gas. Delaware, Lackawanna & Western . Dolaware & Hudson . Douver & Rio Grande pfd.	142%	143%	14:54
	Delaware & Budson	11/176	11912	118%
	Denver & Rio Grande pld	0434	04%	5434
	E. Tenn., Vs. & Georgia	10%	1014	1017
	Fast Tenn., Va. & Ga. let pfd Fast Tenn., Va. & Ga. 2d pfd	2414	72	24.
- 1	How de Control	112	117	24.4
_ 1	Il on de Central.	1734	18	117
•	Louisville & Nasoville	500	601	600
	Lake Shure	1011	1024	1015
	Lake Erie & Western	18%	189	184
6	Lake Erio & Western pfd	54.4	04%	6434
	Louis, New Albany & Chicago	41	414	41
	Long Island	9055	91137	93%
r	Manhattan Consol	9116	9436	11434
	Mich. Central	90	90%	90
1	Missouri Pacine Nash, Contra & St. L	80	80%	80
	Nash, Chatta, & St. L.	84 % 80	8436	84%
	New Jer ey Central	TOUR	10956	100%
	New York Contral. N. Y. & New England	400	4914	4936
f	N. V. Chie, & St. Lonis	1997	156	19-2
t	N. Y., Chir. & St. Louis N. Y., Chir. & St. Louis 1st pfd	7414	74%	7432
	N. Y., Onic. & at. Lamis 20 pld N. Y., Lake Frie & Western	44	44	44
	N. Y. Lake Frie & Western	29%	29%	294
*	N. Y., Lake bried Western pfd	65.16	66	6534
1	N. Y., Sueq. & Western	10%	10%	10%
	N. Y., Susq, & West. pfd	3634	27	36%
	Norfolk & Western Norfolk & Western pid Northern Pacific pfd	57 ₃₄	22	21%
	Norfolk & Western pid	9734	D134	563.
:	Northern Pacine pid	25	61%	60%
L.	Ohio 4 Mississippi.	1712	35 16	2016
8	Oregon Railway & Nav	9056	9554	171
	Oregon Transcontinental	3114	815	3117
	Oregon Short Line	8517	34	3334
	Pacing Mail	3634	8754	3634
	Phusdelphi & Reading	6134	6214	6136
	Peoria, Decatur & Evansville	26M	26%	26%
	Dir lorent Palace Car Co.	175	175	174%
7	Rich. & West Point Ter	24%	2134	24.44
	R.h. 4 West Pont Ter. pfd	72	114	77
	at Paul & Ome B	195	100	8974
	St. Louis & San Francisco pfo	103	105	10436
	Texas Pacific	71	45.76	243
t.	Tenn. Coal & Iron.	3 17	32	3116
	Union Pacific	6.5	6175	CUM
	Unit d States Express	795	7957	795
ð.	Wab., St. Louis & Pacific	79 m	1434	1434
	Wab., St. Louis & Pacine pld	967	27%	265
5	Western Union Telegraph	8334	8456	833

Wheeling & Lake Erin 58% 58% 58% 58% New York Markets.

New York Markets.

WHEAT.—The wheat market continues active in spite of the decline in prices. In Chicago the market opened weaker. December was quoted at 0%,c. against 97%,c., last night's closing figure. May opened 7 points off, at 93%,c. Liverpool cables were exceedingly bearish, and these causes taken together exerted a strong influence on the New York Market. Thus, at the opening, Dec. was quoted at $1.03%,—%,c. below last night's closing figure, and later on declined still further to $1.03%. May opened 7 points off at $1.07%, and after selling at %c. recovered to the opening figure. Oct. opened at $1.09%; Now, $1.02.

COTTON.—Futures opened steady at unchanged prices. Sept. 2 85; Oct. and Nov., 9.68; Dec., 9.68; Jan., 8.75; Feb., 12.83; March, 2.91; April, 10.01; May, 10.08; June, 10.16; July, 10.22. Liverpool steady.

MORE FORGERIES.

The Produce Exchange Gratuity Fund the Victim.

$160,000 Worth of Spurious Mortgages Found So Far.

Another Gigantic Swindling Scheme Laid Bare To-Day.

The Discovery Caused by the Bedell Exposure.

William R. Foster, Jr., the Counsel, Absent Since Tuesday.

Another gigantic swindle, similar to that by which James E. Bedell robbed his trusting employers, Shipman, Barlow, Larocque & Choate, of over a quarter of a million of dollars, has been brought to light.

This time the New York Produce Exchange Gratuity Fund has been victimized certainly to the extent of $160,000 on thirteen forged mortgages purporting to be a lien on property in this city, and the larceny of a much larger amount may yet be discovered.

The Gratuity Fund aggregates about $1,000,000 and is for the most part invested in bonds and mortgages on real estate, It holds forty mortgages on New York property and twenty on property in Brook-

Frightened at the developments in the Bedell case a committee of the trustees of the fund proceeded to investigate their own securities, and began by taking the forty
New York mortgages to the itegister's office yesterday to verify them with the records.

All of them appeared to be duly executed, certified, sealed, filed and recorded, but when Deputy Register James J. Martin went through them with the committee he discovered that thirteen of them, covering about $160,000, were clever forgeries.

They dated from Register Reilly's term up to the present term of Register Sievin, and a few of them purported to have been issued during his term.

One of the forged mortgages, purporting to have been executed by a woman in Orange County, was for $10,000, and the forged certificate of registration was dated Jan. 4, 1884, and signed "James A. Hanley, Deputy Register." securities, and began by taking the forty

1884. and signed "James A. Hanley, Deputy Register."

Mr. Hanley became Deputy Register in June of the following year.

The trustees of the fund were thunderstruck at the revelations of the registry records, and could scarcely believe that they had been the victims of such a wholesale swindle.

They said that interest on all their mortgages had been paid regularly. Sometimes, in the case of genuine instruments, the mortgagors would pay the interest. Other payments would be made in cash and others would be made by check of William R. Foster, jr.

ter, jr.

William R. Foster, jr., is the attorney of the Produce Exchange Gratuity Fund, and has an office at 424 Produce Exchange Building. Through him many of the loans were

ing. Through him many of the loans were negotiated.

The trustees of the fund were in secret the trustees of the fund word not be seen session this morning and could not be seen by the reporter, who called on them for further information regarding this gigantic steal.

These thirteen forged mortgages on New These thirteen forged mortgages on New York property may represent only a portion of the money of which the fund has been defrauded.

When the authenticity of the Brooklyn and other mortgages held by the Trustees is looked into it may be found that another $100,000, or even more, has been stolen through the medium of these forged convey-

Mr. Foster was last seen at his office in the Mr. Foster was last seen at his office in the Produce Exchange at 3 o'clock on Tuesday. At that time he was notified of the meeting of the Trustees of the Gratuity Fund to be held this morning and engaged to be present. He knew that the authenticity of some of the mortgages was questioned, it is said. He resides at Bayport, L. I. and has not been seen about his home since Tuesday. His father, William R. Foster, sr., who is a very wealthy man, residing is a very wealthy man, residing at Babylon, L. I., attended the meeting of the trustees this afternoon with Thomas R. Wentworth, young Mr. Foster's law partner.

Besides being counsel, Mr. Foster is also a prominent member of the Exchange and a subscriber to the Gratuity Fund.

Trustee Alex, Munn and Clerk Duncan R. Norveit were the gentlemen who visited the Register's office and discovered visited the Register's omce and discovered the forgeries.

At the office of the Fund in the Produce Exchange Building it was stated that no forgeries had been discov-ered among their Brooklyn morigages.

An Evening World reporter learned that the BrooklynRegister knew nothing of fraudthe BrooklynRegister knew nothing of fraudulent mortgages over there.

The Gratuity Fund is of an insurance character for the beneficiaries of members of the Exchange in case of death.

An Evening World reporter called at the office of the Fund, in the Produce Exchange Building, where Mr. Alexander Orr, the President of the Exchange and one of the Board of Trustees of the Gratuity Fund, was seen. A meeting of the Board was then in progress in the President's room, and when Mr. Orr came out of the room the reporter questioned him concerning the figures

"I saw the story published in to-day's World," he said. "There is much merit in it. I can say nothing further."

Loster B. Howe, the superintendent of the Exchange, when questioned, said:

Exchange, when questioned, said:
"I know nothing whatever about the matter. The first information I received was through The World. The Gratuity Fund has no connection with the Exchange proper.

Another meeting of the Board of Trustees Another meeting of the Board of Trustees was in progress this afternoon in the Trustees' private room. It was private and no one with the exception of of the five members, Messrs William F. Clark, Calvin B. Lockwood, Alexander Munn, Alexander Orr and Edward C. Rice were present.

were present.
During a lull in the meeting the Chairman of the Board, Mr. Clark, was caught as he left the room for a minute. He said:

"There is some foundation for the story,"
"Will the amount reach $160,000, as reported?" he was asked.
"I can say nothing as yet," was the reply.

"We are investigating the matter,"
With this he hurried off inside where the other trustees were in session.

ON THE COLITICAL WARFATH.

Both Tammany and the Countles Ready for the Coming Fray.

The Tammany Hall Committee on Organization will meet this evening. The warriors will be in full fighting feather, and, although they may not show their teeth or issue a challenge to the County Democracy, the war feeling will be there just the same.

The committee meets to make arrange ments for the primaries to elect delegates to the various nominating conventions and to prepare for the mass ratification meeting of the General Committee on Tuesday evening, Oct. 9. The big assembly room, which was gutted by fire will be in readiness by that time and the braves intend having a rousing gathering.

The County Democracy leaders are anxiously watching Tammany Hall. The C. D. statesmen are beginning to talk, They think they have kept quiet long enough. Police Justice Maurice J. Power has opened his battery on Jammany Hall. In taking to a reporter upon the situation and the local political outlook, he said:

"I am and shall continue to be in favor of the renomination of Mayor Hewitt.

"If Cleveland is entitled to a renomination, if Hill is entitled to a renomination.

"Tammany Hall's course so far has been one of bluff, brag, brass and bluster. I have no fear of the result. We can and we will elect Hewitt."

It is alleged that Mayor Hewitt has refused to contribute to the campaign funds of the National Democratic Committee. He was tion meeting of the General Com-no fear of the result. We can and we will elect Hewitt."

It is alleged that Mayor Hewitt has refused to contribute to the campaign funds of the National Democratic Committee. He was asked for a contribution and he declined. The authority for this statement is a Democrat who is in a position to know whereof he speaks. He says that if the Mayor has contributed any boodle he must have reconsidered his refusal, which was given point blank a few weeks ago.

A friend of Supreme Court Judge Morgan J. O'Brien said to an Evenno Wonlor reporter to-day: 'Before Mayor Hewitt appointed Morgan J. O'Brien Corporation Counsel to succeed E. Henry Lacombe when the latter was made a Federal judge. Mayor Hewitt asked Mr. O'Brien if he would appoint Col. John R. Fellows Assistant Corporation Counsel, In fact, the Mayor virtually demanded the appointment of Col. Fellows as an Assistant Corporation Counsel, Col. Fellows desired to be transferred from the office of Assistant District-Attorney, Mr. O'Brien was surprised when the Mayor that he would appoint Col. Fellows and Mr. O'Brien was surprised when the Mayor a few days afterwards named him as Corporation Counsel."

Congressman S. S. Cox has aga'n been brought forward as a Mayoralty candidate. His friends think he could be persuaded to run on the Wigwan ticket.

The Tammany Hall District leaders are divided regarding a choice for Mayor between Judge P. Henry Dugro and Sheriff Hugh J. Grant. The anti-fammany people are still saying that Grant will be the nominee. Mayor Hewitt has received a letter from an annonymous correspondent asking him if he would indorse Bill Nye for Mayor. Another letter to His Honor reads: "How would Judge Duffy suit you?" Still another writer asks, "Would you indorse Abram S. Hewitt? I would like to snow if you think Abram S. Hewitt you fill the bill. Let us know what you think of Abram S. Hewitt."

CRUSHED ONLY TO RISE AGAIN. Purrovites Stretch a New Banner Acros

Brondway Near the Old Spot. The Purroy Democrats have already taken steps for legal redress against the Mayor and Department of Public Works for removing their banner from Broadway, near Fourteenth street.

A new banner has been stretched across

A new banner has been stretched across Broadway, opposite No. 816. It is understood that De Lancey Nicoll has been engaged by the Purroy people to look up the law governing the seizure of their banner by the Bureau of Incumbrance.

There is a probability that the County Democracy banner at the Cooper Union plaza will be proceeded against by the Purroy organization. The claim is made that roy organization. The claim is made that the poles which hold it up are rank obstruc Schwenk's Had Throw. Jacob Schwenk, of 25; East Houston street, working on a new building on Willet street, was annoyed by three men. He picked up a stone and threw it. It missed the men, but struck five-year-old Benjamin Frinz, of 94 Willet street, on the Astoria Democrats Kally.

Astoris, held its first ratification meeting at the Astoria Assembly Rooms last evening, the house being packed. Col. H. K. Sackelfort made a ringing speech, after which three rousing cheers were given for the national and State tickets. Woolt Tell His Probable Marderer. William Austin, a tiusmith, of 5 Goerck street, was found on the corner of Goerck and Grand

The Cieveland and Thurman Campaign Club, of streets early this morning with sovere cuts in the abdomen and neck. He was taken to the Gouverneur Street Hespitel, where Dr. Harding promunect the wounds probably fatal. Austin would not tell who cut hem.

The Labor Inspectors' Suit. The application of the United Labor party for a mandamus compelling the appointment of their inspectors was postponed to-day until Monday, when Judge Barrett will be on the teach, as Judge O'Brien said he could not conscientiously adjudi-cate the matter.

A Horrible Case Found in the Street. An unknown woman was found in Twenty-fifth street to-day in a norrible condition suffering evidently from a combination of trickinosis and the effects of eating maggoty cheese. She had, it was said, been put out of moors to die. She was taken to a nospital.

At the County Pairs. Attendance at the Mincols, L. I., fair increases The fourth day of the Westchester County Fair at White Plains brough; out 4,000 visitors to-day. On Saturday the great only show will open.

On Saturday the great only show will open.

The baseball record would be very, very incomplete if no mention were made of the great game at New Borp, S. I., between the boys of the St. Joseph's Lyceum and the Judson Printing Company's sine. It was a hard-longat tussle, but the Lyceum boys came out on top by a score of 12 to be. The Lyceum battery worked like professionals, and Connolly, Kithnooley and Fay covered themselves with giory. St. Joseph's sent a big crowd of spectators over to the Island, and they came back delirious with delight.

Readquarters for Campaign Clubs. Campaign suits, equipments, flash torches, bad soveities, Special prices, SPALDING'S, 241 B'way, PRICE ONE CENT.

HE THE MAN?

Whiteclapel Murder.

London Police, However, Do Not At.

ISPECIAL CABLE DESPATCH TO THE WORLD.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—A shabby, unshaved, half-

He gave his name as John Fitzgerald, a bricklayer, and said he wanted to make a full confession. He asserted that he was the murderer of Annie Chapman, and lived in Handbury street,

What he said further is reserved by the notice who refuse positively to divuige other facts. Fitzgerald was immediately taken into custody and placed in one of the cells. He was not, however, charged in the usual way, being merely de-

She Was Young and Pretty, but Was in League with Burglars. In Jefferson Market Police Court this morning officers had to hold a pretty seventeen-year-old brunette to keep her from

The girl was Nellie Callahan, whose mother ives at 340 West Seventeenth street, and who was until lately supposed to be booty.

It has been recently learned that instead of being brother and sister Donohue and Nellie were lovers and the girl had been acting as

Nellie was sent to the House of the Good

MURDERED FOR HIS MONEY.

His Breast and His Head Crushed [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] Belvidere, N. J., Sept. 27. - A foul murder was committed early this morning at Prosperous Miner Found with a Bullet in was found dead in his home, with a bullet in his breast and his head crushed in with some heavy instrument, either a club or a stone. He had been robbed of all his money. The murderer is unknown. The inhabitants of PHILLIPSBURG, N. J .- A man has been arested here who is supposed to be the Belvidere murderer.

Nearly Died of an Extracted Tooth. William McKettrick, an engineer at 9 Marion street, visited a dentist yesterday and had a tooth xtracted. All night blood flowed freely from the extracted. All night blood flowed freely from the cavity, and at 8 o'clock this morning he became exhausted in the cellar of the house.

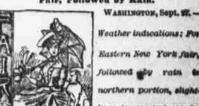

An ambulance was summoned when the surgeon found McKeitrick lying on the floor grasping for breath. The surgeon extracted from his throat a mass of congulated blood and he was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital,

He is a man with powerful physique and it is believed will recover from the terrible loss of blood he sustained for twenty hours.

King's (haracter in Question. Altamont B. King, clad in a dark, quiet suit and with immaculate linen and a black and white plaid con to-day, knocked down an old and whitehaired man who was trying to cross Ann street. The wheels crushed and bruised the old man as he lay prostrate, but did not pass over him. At the Chambers Street Hospital he gave his name as William S. Becker, of Harrisons, Westchester Connit. County.

nfringement.

Jollowed by

The Weather To-day.

1889. 1887. 62 45 9 A. W.....

John Fitzgerald Confesses to a

He Says He Killed Annie Chapman and Is Locked Up.

tach Importance to His Statements.

Spyright, 1888, by The Press Publishing Company (New Fork World).

drunken man gave himself up to the police early this morning and said he wanted to make a con-fession of the killing of Annie Chapman, the last victim in the atrodous series of the Whitechape

Whitecaapel.

The Scotland Yard men are pumping him now. I hear on good authority that he cannot even fix the date of the murder and the detectives are inclined to doubt his story, although there seems to be no good reason for his remarkable confession.

NELLIE CURSED HER MOTHER.

striking her mother, whom she cursed roundly.

the sister of one John Donohue, a burglar confined in the Tombs. She had often visited Donohue, and had brought money to him and to his pal, one Thomas Whittaker. The men pleaded guilty yesterday to charges of burglarizing several uptown residences in July last, valuable jewelry forming a large portion of their booty.

a stool pigeon, disposing of the stolen jew-elry and bringing the money to the pris-

Oxford Furnace, a small mining hamlet six miles from here. Michael Bollinshire, a well-to-do miner.

Oxford Furnace are greatly excited over the tie, stood before Judge Gildersleeve for sentence this morning. He was not sentenced, however, but was remanded till Tuesday to give the prosecutor and Mr. Purdy time to prepare data indicating his character, which his counsel claimed to be such as to justify judicial leniency. An Old Man Hurt Under Car Wheels. Bleecker street car No. 87, on its way uptown at " His Lordship " Scores on Gillette. Judge Barrett to-day denied, with costs, the ap-plication of Wm. Gillette for an injunction to preent the use of his patented running horse effect in Edwin Atwell's play, "His Lordshin," The Judge acted on the point that he State Court had no juria-diction, the effect being protected by United States patent. Mr. Gillette has also sued Mr. Atwell for Fair, Followed by Rain.

by cooler, western uni